

Satellite radio is a service I pay for, I feel I have a right to listen to this service without interference from NAB or the government. I am a construction worker and work in places where I can't pick up local stations, so satellite is all I have. Thank you